Audit Bureau of Circulations (ABC) is a not for profit organisation constituted in the year 1948. Going back six decades when the concept of circulation audit was yet to be established in our country, advertisers had no means to know the actual circulation numbers of publications that they used for advertising and had to depend more on their own judgement. Publishers also found it difficult to convince advertisers of the relative values of their publication for the purpose of advertising. It is with this background, eminent representatives of the advertising profession and publishing industry came together to establish an organization which could serve common interest. Since then the benefit of ABC certificate of circulation have been availed by advertisers, advertising agencies, publishers and organisations connected with print media advertising.

The primary objective of the Bureau is to secure accurate circulation figures and data relating to all periodicals and media that sell advertising space and in regard to such publications to obtain information as to area of distribution and fix standard forms and methods for ascertaining the circulation figures and to record such information and circulate it to members of the ABC.

Bureau certifies circulation figures of member publications for a six-monthly audit period i.e. January to June and July to December. The system envisages a comprehensive audit of printing, distribution, financial and production records of member publications by a panel of empanelled auditors as per the audit guidelines laid down by the Bureau from time to time.

This Guide has been updated upto October 2019.

2. CONCEPT OF “NET REALISATION RATE” – NRR:

2.1 Net Realisation Rate (NRR):

Net Realisation Rate (NRR) is the term used for value of newspaper in waste computed on the basis of waste rate per kg. as fixed by the Council from time to time .

2.2 Qualifying Sales:

Circulation figure which meets the following criteria is treated as “qualifying sales” and certified under ‘Part A’ of the ABC certificate of circulation.

“For each issue of a particular print run on a daily basis the net sale price to the dealer (first point of sale) at any trade margin is higher than the net realisation rate (NRR) with a provision to remove “excess circulation” of non compliant issue of a particular print run where net sale price to the dealer at any trade margin offered is equal to / lower than the net realisation rate (NRR)” subject to such non compliant issue of a particular print run being compliant on a weekly average basis.

There should atleast be one week in an audit period when all issues on each day of the week are compliant with the qualifying criteria.

(Net sale price to the dealer is the net price at which a newspaper is sold to the dealer calculated at cover price of the publication less applicable trade commission, delivery charges or by whatever name called).

2.3 Normal Circulation:

Normal circulation is the average circulation of a particular print run of any week during an audit period when all relevant issues of the week are compliant with the qualifying principle and accordingly the corresponding circulation of the print run during the week qualifies for certification.

2.4 Excess Circulation:

“Excess circulation” is the incremental circulation of any non compliant issue (provided it is compliant on a weekly average basis) as compared with the circulation of the same print run of a compliant immediate previous same day of the week, provided that the particular immediate previous week was compliant on a weekly average basis as per the prescribed NRR audit guidelines.

However, if the same print run of same day of immediate previous week was a non compliant issue under the NRR guidelines or the immediate previous week was a non compliant week on a weekly average basis, then the circulation may be compared with the immediate previous (first available) compliant same print run, same day of the first available previous week, provided that particular week was compliant on a weekly average basis with the NRR guidelines during the immediate previous six months.

If no compliant issue of same day, same print run is available in the immediate previous six months then the benefit of reducing “excess circulation” of non compliant issue will be denied and the entire circulation of non compliant issue(s) would not be recognized as qualifying sales [Part A].

There should at least be one week in an audit period when all issues on each day of the week are compliant with the qualifying criteria.

If any particular week is non compliant on a weekly average basis then removing of excess circulation for the non compliant issue / print run in that particular week will be denied and the entire circulation of non compliant issue(s) would not be considered for certification as qualifying sales [Part A].

2.5 Treatment of non-compliant week:

If any particular week is non compliant on a weekly average basis then removing of excess circulation for the non compliant issue / print run in that particular week will be denied and the entire circulation of non compliant issue(s) / print run would not be considered for certification as qualifying sales [Part A].

If no compliant issue of same day, same print run is available in the immediate previous six months then the benefit of reducing “excess circulation” of non compliant issue will be denied and the entire circulation of non compliant issue(s) would NOT be recognized as qualifying sales [Part A].

This will however be shown under `Part B' as “non-qualifying sales”. (All publishing day(s) during an audit period will however be reckoned for average calculations of qualifying and non qualifying sales.)

2.6 Exemption for subscription copies from the concept of NRR:

All copies supplied to the reader which are through subscription offers are exempted from the purview of the concept of NRR since full details of a subscriber is available with the publisher which can be verified through the process of audit. Subscription amount is also collected by the publisher in advance thus providing a complete audit trail.

A publisher can offer discount / gift to the subscriber together with delivery charges to the distribution trade upto 90% of the cover price of a publication.
(valuation of gifts as per para 1.27)

2.7 Weekly newspapers:

Qualifying criteria for certification will also apply to all weekly newspapers.

In respect of a weekly newspaper, every individual print run will be required to be compliant with the qualifying criteria. Should a particular print run be non-compliant on any publishing day, the “excess circulation” will be removed with reference to the same print run of first available previous week during the immediate previous six months [subject to provisions of excess circulation as applicable for daily newspapers]

2.8 Facets of certification criteria:

Q(i) How “excess circulation” for non compliant issue of the week will be determined?

A(i) “Excess circulation” is the incremental circulation for any non complaint print run (provided it is compliant on a weekly average basis) as compared to the average circulation of the same print run of a compliant immediate previous same day of the week provided that particular immediate previous week was compliant on a weekly average basis as per the prescribed NRR audit guidelines.

There should atleast be one week in an audit period when all issues on each day of the week are compliant with the qualifying criteria.

Q(ii) What treatment will be given if there is no such week where all issues of the week are independently compliant with the qualifying criteria?

A(ii) Under such circumstances, the benefit of reducing only the excess circulation will not be available. The entire circulation of all non compliant issues will not be shown as `Qualifying Sales' in `Part A' of the Certificate. However, such copies will be shown in `Part B' as `Non – Qualifying Sales'. (All publishing day(s) during an audit period will however be reckoned for average calculations of qualifying and non qualifying sales.)

Q(iii) If for a given week, the qualifying principle is not complied with on a weekly average basis, what treatment will be given to non compliant issues during such a week?

A(iii) If any particular week is non compliant on a weekly average basis then removing of excess circulation for the non compliant issue in that particular week will be denied and the entire circulation of non compliant issue(s) would not be considered for certification as qualifying sales [Part A].

This will however be shown under `Part B' as "non-qualifying sales". (All publishing day(s) during an audit period will however be reckoned for average calculations of qualifying and non qualifying sales.)

3. SUBSCRIPTION SALES:

3.1 Subscription Offers (Single & Joint) :

Following guidelines are required to be fulfilled in case of all single & joint subscription offers:

In case of subscription schemes for a period longer than six months, for all booked subscriptions, full subscription amount to be received within a period of two months from the date of booking a subscription.
- d. Supply of subscription copies to a subscriber to commence only after the subscription amount is received as above by a publisher and / or his agent(s) in full as per the subscription offer.

Gifts to be valued as mentioned (Ref. para 1.27)

- e. In case a publication is offered as a gift, the same to be valued at its cover price.
- f. In case a publication, which is not a member of the Bureau but is offered under the Joint Subscription Scheme, then the member publication shall arrange for verification of the distribution and financial books and records of a non-member publication. The member publication will then arrange to obtain a written confirmation from the non-member publication that it's financial & distribution books & records are open for scrutiny by Bureau's Auditors / officials.

- g. Publisher should retain atleast 10% of the cover price of the publication, after taking into account discount on cover price, value of gifts, delivery charges, etc. (in case of joint subscription publisher to retain atleast 10% of the cover price of all publications individually included in the subscription offer).
- h. In case of payments received digitally, any charges deducted by the service provider/s will not be considered while retaining 10% of the cover price.

Non-compliance of any of the above conditions will render the subscription offer as unacceptable for certification as qualifying sales (Part 'A').

(valuation of gifts as per para 1.27)

3.2 Institutional subscription sales (Newspapers) :

Subscription Sales effected to institutions upto 5% of the total qualifying sales will be considered as qualifying sales. This is in addition to Institutional Sales (non-subscription copies) which is included for certification as qualifying sales upto 10% of the total non-subscription copies.

All prescribed audit guidelines for subscription copies (single and joint) as in force are also applicable to all institutional subscription copies. All relevant documentation should be available with the publisher for auditor's verification.

- ii) Atleast 50% of the individual single copy cover prices of the other publications involved in a combo offer.

Net combo price to the trade:

Similarly, net combo price to the trade should atleast be:

- Full net price to the trade of the highest priced publication involved in a combo offer PLUS minimum 50% of the net price to the trade of the other publications involved in a combo offer.

[Net price to the trade as applicable to the respective single copy involved in a combo offer should be reckoned.

- e) Number of combo copies to be separately shown in the print order of the respective publications.
- f) Combo copies should be separately billed to agents / sub agents at their net price to the trade.
- g) In case a Publication, which is not a member of the Bureau is offered under a combo offer, then the member publication shall arrange for verification of the distribution and financial books and records of the non-member publication. The member publication will then arrange to obtain a written confirmation from a non-member publication that it's financial & distribution books & records are open for scrutiny to Bureau's Auditors / officials.
- h) The new qualifying criteria, (NRR) would be applicable to all publications under the combo offer taken together at the prescribed net combo price to the trade.

Non-compliance of any of the above conditions will render the combo offer as unacceptable for certification as Qualifying Sales under Part A of the ABC Certificate of circulation.

4.2 Single Copy Sales:

All copies sold to the reader at the prescribed cover price.

4.3 Institutional Sales:

Copies of newspapers (Dailies & Weeklies) which are either sold directly by the publishers and/or his distributing trade to organisations not connected with newspaper distribution trade provided bonafides of the organisation(s) involved in Institutional Sales are established to the satisfaction of the auditors (Unless Auditors/Bureau having any evidence to the contrary).

Institutional Sales are accepted for certification only to the extent of 10% of Qualifying Sales.

4.4 Different Print Runs / Variants of a publication distributed in the same market place:

Different print runs / variants of the main paper distributed in the same market place would be considered for combined certification.

Sub-titles / different names of variants (if applicable) are required to be mentioned below the line separating the title panel or mast-head in a font size not exceeding 1/4th font size of a title.

Different print run / variant of the main paper in the same market place would be defined as having any of the following differentiation:

sub-title, content, cover price, pagination, advertisement rate, size of the newspaper etc.

The title, language, frequency and ownership of the variants should be similar.

Average qualifying circulation figures of all variants of the main paper in the same market place would be prominently shown on the first page of the ABC certificate of circulation.

A break-up of average qualifying circulation of each different print run/ variant of the main paper would be required to be submitted by newspaper publisher members for every audit period.

4.5 Tabloid and Broadsheet of the same title:

Publisher members may publish a particular print run of a title in different sizes i.e. tabloid for one print run for a specific market and broadsheet for the rest of the print runs for other markets. The broadsheet as well as tabloid would be considered for certification together provided the title, frequency, language and ownership of the publication remain the same.

Break-up of circulation details of broadsheet as well as tabloid in a particular market place would be separately shown on the first page of the ABC Certificate of circulation for the benefit of users of the certificate. Publisher to provide the break-up in the incoming certificate filed with the Bureau.

4.6 Weekly print runs of a daily newspaper:

A weekly print run of a daily newspaper cannot be certified together if a publication decides to publish a particular print run only once a week with the same title. The said publication would then be categorised as a weekly and therefore cannot be clubbed together with the circulation figures of a daily newspaper.

5. SCHEMES FOR READERS - Non subscription copies :

5.1 Incentive / Gifts Schemes for readers for a defined period(Non Subscription Copies):

Publisher is allowed to offer gifts to readers on non subscription copies upto 50% of the cover price of a publication so that copies qualify for certification as Qualifying Sales (Part A).

Accordingly, it is clarified that publishers offering gifts to readers value of which is more than 50% of the cover price on non subscription copies under any scheme for a defined period then such a scheme is void abinitio and does not qualify for certification. Accordingly, all copies offered to readers under such a scheme do not qualify for certification as Qualifying Sales irrespective of whether readers have availed the benefit offered under the scheme or not.

All incentive schemes to readers to be framed in such a manner such that the name of the beneficiary / reader is identifiable. An audit trail in the form of a reader booking form with the name, address and other contact details of the reader should be made available for auditor's verification along with a record of gifts purchased and distributed.

Publishers should ensure that the reader incentive schemes are not taken advantage of by the trade in order to increase their earnings which would result in reduction of the net price at which the trade purchases a copy from the publisher.

In case of barter arrangements, relating to gifts issued to subscribers or on newsstand sales, publishers should pass necessary accounting entries in their books of accounts.

(valuation of gifts as per para 1.27)

Readers schemes offered through a draw of lots where very few readers from a group of readers are chosen for a gift (only in kind, cash gifts not permissible) through a draw of lots (chance) would however be permissible.

5.2 Incentives / Gifts with a particular issue and calculation of excess circulation in case of gifts valued at over 50% of the cover price of a newspaper (non-subscription):

In case a gift / sample etc. is provided along with a particular issue of a publication value of which is more than 50% of the cover price of a publication then in such cases only excess circulation achieved for the relevant issue will not be considered for certification as Qualifying Sales

The provision referred to above for reducing 'excess circulation' does not apply to cases where value of gifts offered to readers is more than 50% of the cover price under a scheme for a defined period. In such circumstances, such a scheme as mentioned above will be treated void abinitio and all copies under such a scheme will be shown as NON Qualifying Sales (Part 'B').

In order to determine excess circulation achieved for a particular issue when a free sample, gift etc. was carried alongwith a publication, following procedure needs to be followed :

- a) In case of dailies, average Qualifying Sales of the previous week to be taken as normal circulation provided there were no promotional activities*, in any form, during the given period.
- b) In case of Sunday issue of a daily, weeklies and magazines, average Qualifying Sales of previous four issues where there were no promotional activities*, in any form, would be reckoned as normal circulation.

[*Promotional activity includes free distribution of gifts/samples, calendars etc. to readers and shall also include any other schemes to induce a reader to purchase a publication]

Publishing Day on which free samples/gifts are distributed alongwith a publication would be reckoned for circulation of average circulation in all cases.

(valuation of gifts as per para 1.27)

5.3 Gift of a publication on newsstand sales (non subscription):

- a) The value of gift / inducement / incentive to a reader should not exceed 50% of the cover price of the publication on which an inducement is offered (valuation of gifts as per para 1.27).
- b) In case another publication is offered as a gift, in such cases, on the print line below the mast-head of the main publication, it should be mentioned that "XYZ" publication offered free with "DEF" publication.
- c) Similarly, on the print line of the publication offered free, it should be specified that this publication is offered free alongwith XXX publication.
- d) Print Order of the publication offered free should specifically show the number of copies offered free with a particular publication.
- e) In case a Publication, which is offered as a gift / inducement / incentive is not a member of the Bureau then the member publication shall arrange for verification of the distribution and financial books and records of a non-member publication. The member publication will then arrange to obtain a written confirmation from the non-member publication that it's financial & distribution books & records are open for scrutiny by Bureau's Auditors / officials.

- f) Copies of the Publication offered free as an inducement or at less than the prescribed cover price would not be considered for certification under Part A of the ABC Certificate of circulation.
- g) The NRR will be ascertained after considering the combined pagination of the main publication together with the publication given free as a gift.
- h) The net price to the trade would be calculated at the cover price of the main publication less trade commission and / or delivery charges on the main as well as the free publication.

(valuation of gifts as per para 1.27)

Non compliance of any of the above guidelines would render such gift/inducement offer as unacceptable for certification as qualifying sales.

5.4 Cash gifts not permitted:

- a) The word “gift” would specifically exclude all cash gifts or cash equivalents (gift cheques etc) to subscribers / regular readers from the purview of gifts to subscribers / regular readers. Gifts offered to subscribers / regular readers only in kind will be considered for the purpose.

Discount coupons of various stores are permitted. Advertisement space offered to the readers by a publisher in their own publication is also permissible. Ad Rates as mentioned in the advertisement rate card will be considered.

The above discount coupons and advertisements are permitted upto 50% of the cover price in case of non subscription scheme and upto 90% (including other gifts, discount on cover price and trade commission) in case of subscription scheme.

- b) All copies involved in a scheme offering its readers cash gifts / cash equivalent / cash discounts etc. will be shown as “Non Qualifying Sales” under ‘Part B’ of the ABC Certificate of circulation. Such a scheme would be void abinitio and copies involved would not qualify for certification irrespective of whether the benefit of the scheme was availed by a reader or not.

5.5 Free calendar / almanac to readers once a year:

Publisher Members would be allowed to distribute to their regular readers, a Calendar / Almanac once in a year alongwith their publication with or without increasing the cover price of the publication on the relevant day. All copies of the relevant issue sold would qualify for certification under Part A.

6. COPIES DISTRIBUTED THRU DISTRIBUTION TRADE:

6.1 Distribution cost:

An amount paid to the trade by whatever name called plus any additional incentives / benefit which is directly connected with selling / distribution of the newspaper paid to the trade, the same shall be totalled to arrive at the gross trade term payable to the trade for distributing copies.

An amount not connected with distribution of copies paid / reimbursed to the trade for which supportings are available may not be considered as part of the trade term. The trade term should be calculated on the cover price of a publication.

Actual cost of transporting publications from the printing location to the distribution centres as per contractual arrangements made by the publisher do not form part of the delivery charges or trade term.

6.2 Trade terms:

Commission and allowances etc. mutually agreed to between the publisher and the distributing trade and paid continuously and consistently.

Apart from basic commission, it may include other facilities such as office allowances, transport allowances, bonuses, rewards, incentives, ex-gratia payments, value of gifts/ incentives consistently offered under any scheme to the distribution trade.

However, if a gift or a reward is announced on specific occasion which is based on the performance of a particular agent from a group of agents or is subject to a draw of lottery pursuant to a sales promotion scheme, then such gifts shall be considered more or less as a sales promotion scheme rather than a part of the trade term (Unless Auditors/Bureau having evidence to the contrary).

However, reimbursement made by the publisher for expenses actually incurred by the distributing trade on their behalf for services rendered other than those relating to the sale of copies shall not be included in the gross trade terms provided, necessary documentary evidence in support of actual expenses incurred by agents for such services is available for auditors' verification.

(valuation of gifts as per para 1.27)

6.3 Gift / incentive schemes for agents:

Information on gift schemes run for the benefit of the agents should be declared in the Incoming Certificate and made available to the Auditors at the time of circulation audit. Written records should be kept by all publishers for all such schemes.

Publishers offer various incentive schemes to agents In order to increase the number of copies. Additional commission/ gifts are offered to agents on copies increased (i.e. over and above the cut-off base order) during the scheme period.

All additional payments / value of gifts offered should then be added to the trade terms of the agents / hawkers on the total number of copies supplied to them during the scheme period and not just on the increased number of copies.

All gifts offered to the trade to be valued as mentioned earlier (para 1.27)

7. SUBMISSION OF CIRCULATION FIGURES:

7.1 Issuance of an ABC Certificate of Circulation:

All newspaper publisher members would be issued an ABC Certificate of circulation duly specifying copies under qualifying sales (PART A) and / or non qualifying sales (PART B) as the case may be, subject to at least 50% of the total copies being sold at the prescribed price i.e. at least 50% of the total sales should be paid circulation at the prescribed price.

7.1.1 Mandatory submission of circulation figures:

Submission of circulation figures for each audit period is mandatory for all publisher members. If audited circulation figures in the prescribed format are not submitted for one audit period by a publisher member, then audited circulation figures for the following audit period cannot be considered for certification.

7.1.2 Dates for submission of audited circulation figures:

- a) All publisher members are mandatorily required to submit their circulation figures every six months to the Bureau in the prescribed format of Incoming Certificate. The due dates are:

Audit period January/June	Audit period July/December
-----	-----
1 st July to 16 th August	1 st January to 15 th February (next)

- b) Incoming Certificates submitted after the above due dates would not be considered for certification and will be treated as “Not Filed” and no ABC certificate of circulation will be issued.

7.2 Submission of circulation figures under “Part B” of ABC Certificate of circulation:

- In some cases, few readers schemes in vogue may not qualify for certification as per the Bureau’s existing guidelines. Such circulation to be shown under “Part B” of the ABC Certificate of circulation as “Non Qualifying Sales” .

- Users of the ABC certificate mainly media planners, media buyers, advertising agencies and advertisers, time and again had requested the Bureau to provide complete details of circulation of member publications.
- In order to give meaningful and complete information to the media planners and in order to assist them in their analysis and comparisons, it would be appropriate for all Publisher members to submit their circulation figures to the Bureau either as qualifying sales under “Part A” or under “Part B” as non-qualifying sales within the prescribed time frame.

7.3 Publications distributed without supplements:

Bureau certifies circulation figures of a member newspaper as a “unit” and supplements are an intrinsic part of the unit particularly so when the total number of pages are mentioned on the mast-head which includes the supplement pages. Any incomplete publication sold/distributed in the market place or supplied to Subscribers etc which do not contain all pages including supplement as mentioned on the mast-head would accordingly not qualify for certification as “Qualifying Sales” under PART A.

7.4 Total number of pages contained in a newspaper:

It would be mandatory for all newspapers enrolled with the Bureau as members to clearly mention on the front page of the main newspaper, total number of pages including all its supplements plus add-ons.

7.5 Compilation of Incoming Certificate:

7.5.1 Certification of a new edition and/or printing centre for part audit period

ABC certificate of circulation is issued for an entire six monthly audit period and the total average figure represents average copies certified amongst various centres for each publishing day.

Accordingly, different number of publishing days in the ABC certificate of circulation would henceforth be treated as under:

- A) An edition / printing centre published throughout the six month audit period – January to June and July to December would be calculated at the respective number of publishing days (except publishing holidays) eg. 178, 179, 180, 181 days (as the case may be).
- B) A new edition started during the six monthly audit period for lesser number of publishing days for which the publishing days to be calculated as the maximum number of publishing days amongst all editions in the ABC certificate.
- C) A new printing centre of an existing edition started during the six monthly audit period for lesser number of publishing days for which the publishing days would be calculated as the maximum number of publishing days of the respective existing edition.

D) If a new edition / printing centre has been carved out of an existing edition and/or printing centre, and published for a part audit period, then the publishing days would be taken as the entire six monthly publishing days of the parent edition / printing centre from which it was carved out.

E) If a particular edition / printing centre has ceased during the audit period, then the same would also be treated similarly and the number of publishing days would be calculated as the maximum number of publishing days amongst the respective edition / printing centres (similar to B & C above).

A foot note would also be provided on the ABC certificate as under for all the above cases:

Foot note:-

..... edition and/or printing centre (as the case may be) started/ceased on (date) and published for publishing days.

The average qualifying sales for the same works out to copies (based on actual publishing days).

7.5.2 Copies indented locally but distributed abroad:

All copies of a publication which are indented by agents in India but distributed / sold abroad will not be considered for certification while arriving at the average qualifying sales.

7.5.3 Option to avail a separate and / or a combined ABC certificate for a multi-edition publication:

A publisher of a multi-edition publication has an option to avail either a separate certificate for its various editions or a combined ABC certificate for various editions. A publisher who is a member of the Bureau and has exercised an option to avail a separate ABC Certificate or a combined ABC Certificate can change his option only once during a period of four six monthly audit periods.

Publisher's request may be considered by the Council only prospectively from the commencement of the following audit period.

7.6 Part certification of editions / printing centres contained in a combined certificate:

If a publisher member does not wish to avail of certificate of circulation from the Bureau for one or more editions amongst other editions of a title involved in a combined certificate, then the same will be permitted.

Bureau will consider for certification those editions submitted for certification and the remaining editions will be shown as “Not Submitted” / “Not Received” / “Not Certified” as the case may be.

Non-submission of circulation figures of printing centre/s is however not permissible. In case a publication has various printing centres of an edition, then the publisher has to submit audited incoming certificates of all printing centres in order to avail certification of that particular edition from the Bureau. In case of printing centres, if for any reason, the circulation figures do not qualify for certification, then the same will be shown under Part “B” of the incoming certificate.

7.7 Reasons for increase in circulation:

Publisher members are required to specify the reasons for increase in circulation when the circulation of a printing centre or an edition individually increases / decreases by 10% or more over the previous audit period.

7.8 Sunday circulation / weekly editions of daily newspapers:

In case of daily newspapers, where higher rates are prescribed or surcharge is levied over normal advertisement rates for Sunday editions or Weekly edition published on any other day, average circulation of such Sunday or Weekly editions is indicated separately on the relevant ABC certificate alongwith average qualifying sales. In such cases, publisher members are required to submit separate circulation figures for Sunday issues/weekly editions.

Any attempt by a publisher member to obtain higher ABC certification by fraudulent means or manipulation of books and records or by any other manipulative tactics inter-alia including non-compliance of audit guidelines, then in all such cases, Audit Committee and / or Bureau's Council of Management would consider appropriate strict action inter-alia not limited to circulation figures being treated as "Not Accepted" for certification for a particular duration but also including termination of membership (as per provision in Articles of Association) and/or any other punitive action which the Bureau's Council of Management may decide.

vi) Complaints from publisher members:

Complaints against publisher members should be sent to the Secretariat before the end of the respective six monthly audit period so that the complaint can be verified and acted upon by the Bureau for that particular audit period. All complaints should be in writing accompanied by evidence.

xi) New enrolment to Bureau membership (new titles and /or new editions of existing titles):

All new titles and / or new editions of existing titles applying for Bureau membership would be considered for certification for the first time after a Bureau audit.

8. COMPILATION OF AREA BREAKDOWN STATEMENT:

8.1 Area Breakdown Statement:

For the purpose of compilation of Area Breakdown Statement to be submitted to the Bureau together with the circulation figures, publisher members and their auditors are required to select an issue which has circulation nearest to the average qualifying sales for the relevant audit period so that it reflects normal pattern of distribution of a publication. Despite the above requirement, substantial variations are noticed between the figures of average Qualifying Sales for an audit period and the total distribution provided in the Area Breakdown Statement for the issues selected. In order to rectify this anomaly, members are requested to provide details of State-wise, District-wise and Town-wise distribution in an Area Breakdown Statement for the issue selected which will be reduced or adjusted in proportion to the average circulation figures for the period. Accordingly, total qualifying distribution of an issue provided in Area Breakdown Statements will be equal to the average qualifying sales as certified for the period.

8.2 Compilation of Area Breakdown Statement (in case of new edition started during the audit period):

In case of a new edition of a multi-centre publication started in between the audit period, edition-wise distribution details of a newly started edition during the relevant audit period will not be shown separately. New titles and/or new editions of existing titles which apply for Bureau membership and seek Council's consent to file their audited circulation figures for a particular audit period should with immediate effect ensure that the audited circulation figures are submitted to the Bureau for that particular audit period. In case, a publication fails to submit the audited circulation figures for that particular audit period for which Council has given its consent, then the application for Bureau membership submitted to the Bureau would be treated as "Null" and "Void" and the application fee paid alongwith the application for Bureau membership would be forfeited.

In such cases, reversal of the accounting entry after the close of the audit period is not permissible.

11.2 On account payments by agents:

12. AUDIT GUIDELINES:12.1 Appointment of Publisher Auditor:

Following broad framework has been decided upon by the Council to directly appoint auditors to carry out circulation audits of member publications every six-months:

- i) Publisher members would be provided names of three audit firms as an option to choose the audit firm / firms to audit their member publications. Publisher member having multiple editions / printing centres at several places may choose any one or two or all three audit firms and distribute their various publications and / or (editions) amongst those firms.
- ii) In cases where the option of three audit firms provided to a publisher member is not acceptable to a publisher member for any valid reason then a publisher member should clearly specify in detail the reasons for not accepting any of the three audit firms offered. Council would then decide on the matter duly considering the reasons offered by a publisher member.
- iii) The audit firm chosen will carry out circulation audits as per the prescribed audit guidelines as laid down from time to time and submit the certified circulation figures along with the check list duly stamped and signed.
- iv) An Audit firm would undertake circulation audits of member publications for a maximum period of 3 years i.e. 6 six monthly audit periods.

- v) All empanelled auditors should necessarily carry out circulation audits as per the prescribed Bureau's audit guidelines and submit the audited circulation figures within a period of 45 days after the end of the relevant audit period i.e.
- for the audit period January - latest by 16th August (next day in case of a Sunday or Bank Holiday)
to June
 - for the audit period July to - latest by 15th February
December
- vi) Emphasis would be placed on the capacity of the audit firm to handle the volume of circulation audits and complete circulation audits on time.
- vii) Instances of complaints received from publisher members against any empanelled auditors would be considered by the Council within 30 days and appropriate action would be initiated by the Council based on the material facts of the matter available including response from the auditor.
- viii) The existing practice of circulation auditors carrying out a press and market visit atleast once a year (January to December) would continue.
- ix) The check-list would be required to be completed by the appointed publisher auditor for each edition and / or printing centre (as the case may be)
- x) Audit Fees & out of pocket expenses:
- Audit fees payable to the appointed audit firms will be mutually decided between the publisher and the audit firm. Audit fees mutually decided should be informed to the Bureau. Actual out of pocket expenses incurred by the auditor to be reimbursed by the publisher against supportings/vouchers.

12.2 All publications of a group not members of the Bureau:

Publishers who publish more than one publication, all of which are not members of the Bureau and separate books of accounts are not maintained for non member publications then under such circumstances the publisher should provide access to the auditor to enable him examine records pertaining to non member publications.

In cases where non member publications are offered to a reader along with member publications under any scheme then it is incumbent upon the publisher to provide full access to the auditor for scrutiny of books and records pertaining to non member publications.

12.3 Banking of cash collections:

Publisher members are required to deposit into the bank on the same day or the next working day cash received from all sources viz. sale of copies, advertisement receipts and from any other source.

Cash required by the publisher for day-to-day disbursement should be separately withdrawn and not adjusted from the daily cash collection.

Auditor should verify this aspect and establish that actual cash received on all days has been deposited into the bank in full on the same day or next working day and such a transaction is not merely a book entry

Monthly bank reconciliation statements should be up-to-date and available for Auditor's verification.

12.4 Books and records to be audited:

Each audit should include financial, sales and statistical audit to the satisfaction of the auditor in order to establish the qualifying sales. For that purpose auditors should call for relevant books and records and information as may be required from the publisher. However, the financial audit should be limited to ascertain to the satisfaction of the auditor the circulation figures to be certified without going into other financial records which have no bearing on the publisher's circulation figures. Scrutiny of various accounts heads in general ledger should be done for those accounts pertaining to sale of copies.

For a satisfactory audit, an auditor should not limit his scrutiny of publishers books and records placed before him but his audit should include physical verification of actual printing and despatch of the publication including actual sale of copies to the trade which may be ascertained through market visits, interaction with distribution trade as well as seeking direct confirmations from newsprint suppliers, agents, principal agents and others involved in sales of copies.

12.5 Books and records to be maintained by principal agent(s) / agency:

An agent /s who distributes or effects at least 20% of the total sales subject to a minimum of 25,000 copies per printing centre / edition is recognised and termed as "principal agent".

It is essential for the publisher to arrange for principal agent's books and records for an audit by the publisher auditor and / or Bureau auditor as required at all times.

Further the word "publication" in the context of principal agency mean "which submits separate incoming certificate for consideration of the Bureau".

Following books and records are required to be maintained.

a) Distribution records:

- i. Sub agents/ hawkers supply register
